

The customer shall pay all invoices within 30 days.

The supplier must maintain the confidentiality of customer information.

The employee agrees to return all company property upon termination.

The vendor is required to submit monthly reports.

The company will be responsible for providing technical support.